

Letter of Intent between Tokai University (Japan) and
Universidad Nacional de Ingenieria (Peru)

Tokai University, Japan and Universidad Nacional de Ingenieria, Peru have agreed to develop the following protocols governing their intention to collaborate on academic and research-related activities. This Letter of Intent allows for negotiations towards Official Memorandum following further discussions and sharing of information relating to common areas of interest.

Scope

The scope of possible collaboration on academic and research activities included in this Letter of Intent includes the following categories:

- Research collaboration in the areas of mutual interest;
- Exchange of academic materials which are made available by both parties;
- Exchange program of scholar and students;
- Cooperative seminars, workshops and other academic activities.

Commencement, renewal, termination and amendment

This Letter of Intent is effective as of the date of execution by the appropriate officer of each signatory institution. The Letter of Intent covers a period of one year from the final of signing, with the understanding that it may be terminated by either party giving at least six months notice to the other party in writing. This Letter of Intent is not intended to be legally binding and may be replaced by a formal Memorandum of Understanding when agreed to by both parties.

Signed

for Tokai University

for Universidad Nacional de Ingenieria

Prof. Yusuke Dan
Executive Director

Head Office of International Affairs Tokai
University Educational System

Aurelio Padilla
Rector

Universidad Nacional de Ingenieria

Date: Lima, October 31, 2013